3

Search for the title or ID of the session(s) using Ctrl + F or Cmd +F on your keyboard, or sort by column.

The Overall Evaluation must be completed before you can print your certificates or have your credits reported to the ABAI.

4 Next to the session you wish to claim credit for, select “Claim Credit.”

- 5 Complete the session evaluation. All presenters need to be evaluated before claiming credit. If you did not attend a lecture, select “NA” for that presenter.

All faculty feedback will be shared with presenters.

The image shows a computer monitor displaying a web-based session evaluation form. The form has a blue header with the AAAAI 2026 logo and the session title '0601 2026 ABAI Literature Review'. The main content area is white and contains the following text and form elements:

AAAAI Annual Meeting – Session Evaluation Questions

This feedback will be shared with faculty.

Learning Objective(s):
Assess recently published research relevant to the practice of allergy/immunology

This session met my expectations based on the session description and learning objectives.  Yes  No

I observed objective, balanced content that did not demonstrate bias in favor of a commercial interest.  Yes  No

Session-specific Faculty Questions

6 Once you have completed the evaluation, select “Next”. This will take you back to the original page, where you will now see the appropriate number of credits on your profile.

 If you only attended part of a session and need to lower the number of CME credits, go to the “CME” column and select the number of credits commensurate to your participation in the activity.

To download or email your certificate(s) to yourself, go to the “My Certificates” tab.

If you haven’t completed the Overall Evaluation, it will prompt you to do so now. As it depends on your registration designation, you may not see every certificate below.

The screenshot shows the AAAAI 2026 website interface. At the top, the event title and dates are displayed. Below the navigation bar, the 'My Certificates' dropdown menu is open, listing options: CME certificate, Participation certificate, Attendance certificate, and Transcript. The main content area shows 'Sessions and Claim Credit' with a summary of CME and Participation credit claimed (1.25 out of 2). Below this is a table of sessions:
